The central paradox of our time can be stated thus: economic globalization does not strengthen the current regime of global laissez-faire. It works to undermine it. It works to undermine it. There is nothing in today's global market that buffers it against the social strains arising from high uneven economic development within and between the ...

Globalization: theory and experience - infed.org:

Transformationalists and postmodernists agree that the impact of globalization has been exaggerated by globalists but argue that it is foolish to reject the concept out of hand. This theoretical position argues that globalization should be understood as a complex set of interconnecting relationships through which power, for the most part, is exercised indirectly.
